

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 2008

For more information, contact:
Blanche Gucwa
Sexual Assault Center of Family Services
920-436-4360 ext. 1335
bgucwa@familyservicesnew.org

Take Back the Night March and Rally Scheduled

(Green Bay, Wis.) – This year marks the 22nd anniversary of the Take Back the Night March and Rally in Brown County, a community event designed to bring awareness and empowerment to individuals who have been affected by abuse and to inspire action that will bring an end to violence.

The event is scheduled to take place on Friday, April 11 at 6:30 pm at the Brown County Courthouse, 100 South Jefferson St., Green Bay. In the event of rain, the rally will take place inside the Brown County Courthouse Rotunda.

Take Back the Night is held annually as part of the events celebrating Sexual Assault Awareness Month to honor and support survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault throughout Brown County.

Activities for this year's Take Back the Night include:

- 6:30 pm Gathering Music
 - 7:00 pm Welcome – Sarah Thomsen, WBAY-Channel 2
 - 7:05 pm Keynote Speaker – Olga Trujillo, Director of Programs at Casa de Esperanza in St. Paul, Minnesota and Owner/President of O.R.T. Solutions, a consulting firm that focuses on domestic violence, child abuse and sexual assault, immigration and human trafficking issues throughout the country
 - 7:30 pm Survivor Speakout
 - 8:00 pm Take Back the Night March
- Reception to follow at St. Willebrord Church, 209 South Adams St, Green Bay

The event is organized by an alliance of citizens and community agencies including the Sexual Assault Center of Family Services and Golden House. This year's Take Back the Night is sponsored by NWTC, WBAY-Channel 2, and Q-90 FM. For additional information, contact the Sexual Assault Center of Family Services at (920) 436-8899.

#

Take Back the Night ♦ P.O. Box 22308 ♦ Green Bay, WI 54305-2308