Times of change...

Times of challenge...

Times of uncertainty...

Times of growth...

When a sense of humor isn't enough to get you through life's challenges, consulting with one of Family Services' trained, professional therapists may be the answer. Having a concerned and educated listener to collaborate with you as you face life's hardships can help you feel less alone. Counseling also helps people recognize problems and identify possible solutions or alternatives.

As individuals, couples and families move through life, they meet a number of challenges. Family Services' therapists are trained to help with issues such as:

- Relationships
- Marital and couple conflicts
- Divorce
- Stresses of parenting
- Parent/child communication
- Depression and anxiety
- Grief and loss
- Low self-esteem
- Aging parents
- Health issues
- Substance abuse

The Counseling Clinic offers:

- Individual counseling
- Family counseling
- Group counseling and support groups
- Play therapy and specialized children's therapy
- Specialized counseling to cope with substance abuse and/or sexual assault

Our staff consists of professional therapists who have a Masters Degree and License and a minimum of two years post-graduate training. Most insurance plans are accepted.
