The Counseling Clinic of Family Services

Times of change...

Times of challenge...

Times of uncertainty...

Times of growth...

When a sense of humor isn't enough to get you through life's challenges, consulting with one of Family Services' trained, professional therapists may be the answer. Having a concerned and educated listener to collaborate with you as you face life's hardships can help you feel less alone. Counseling also helps people recognize problems and identify possible solutions or alternatives.

As individuals, couples and families move through life, they meet a number of challenges. Family Services' therapists are trained to help with issues such as:

- The stresses of parenting
- Parent/child communication
- Relationships
- Aging parents
- Marital and couple conflicts
- Divorce

- Career changes
- Health issues
- Low self-esteem
- Depression and anxiety
- Substance abuse

The Counseling Clinic offers:

- Individual counseling
- Family counseling
- Group counseling and support groups
- Play therapy and specialized children's therapy
- Specialized counseling to cope with substance abuse and/or sexual assault
- Psychiatric assessment and consultation

Our staff consists of professional therapists who have a Masters Degree or Certification and a minimum of two years post-graduate training. Psychiatrists and Psychologists are also available to provide treatment and consultation. Most insurance plans are accepted.
