Program Overview

New Beginnings is a federally funded program that provides transitional housing and support services to women who are homeless, or at risk of becoming homeless, due to domestic violence and/or sexual assault. The program provides housing stability and case management services to women in need.

To participate in the program, individuals/families must:

- ◆ Reside in Brown County
- ◆ Be receiving services at Golden House or Family Services Sexual Assault Center
- ◆ Agree to follow the terms of their lease
- ◆ Meet with their assigned Case Manager on a weekly basis
- ◆ Agree to maintain a violence free home
- ◆ Develop a safety plan
- ◆ Be willing/able to pay their monthly rent

Services Provided

Services of the New Beginnings program may include:

- ◆ Assessment
- ◆ Individualized case planning
- ◆ Goal development
- ◆ Safety and transition planning
- ◆ Intensive case management
- ◆ Advocacy services
- ◆ Educational planning
- ◆ Employability skills training
- ◆ Referrals to community resources
- ◆ Rental, transportation, and/or child care assistance as needed
- ◆ Parenting and child development information
- ◆ Sexual assault and domestic violence support services

Program Goals

The primary goal of the program is to prevent re-victimization of domestic abuse and sexual assault victims. The program also strives to help women secure safe, stable and permanent housing, and strengthen their economic self-sufficiency.

How to Enroll

If you are a woman who is receiving services for domestic violence or sexual assault and is currently homeless or at risk of becoming homeless, please contact Courtney Ayala, Case Manager, at 920-438-1616 ext. 2107 or cayala@familyservicesnew.org.

For general program questions, contact Meika Burnikel, program Manager, at 920-438-1616 ext. 2101 or mburnikel@familyservicesnew.org.

Funding Source

The New Beginnings program is funded by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women (OVW). All services are provided at no cost to the participant.
