Gosse Joins Family Services' Leadership Team

(Green Bay, Wis.) – Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin, Inc., is pleased to announce the hiring of Cara Gosse as Vice President of Communications & Development. Gosse will lead the agency's public relations, donor relations and fundraising efforts, helping to grow revenue through the solicitation of major gifts, donor engagement, special events, grants and corporate and foundation support. She manages a team of special events planning, communications and marketing, and donor information management staff focused on building Family Services' visibility, impact and financial resources within the communities it serves.

Gosse most recently served as Director of Annual Giving at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis. since 2008 and, prior to that, as a Development Officer for Special Events at the Courage Center in Minneapolis, Minn. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the College of St. Benedict/St. John's University in Minnesota and a Master's degree in Nonprofit Management from Hamline University in St. Paul.

"Cara will work closely with our team members, board of directors and volunteers," says Jeff Vande Leest, Family Services' President & CEO. "We are pleased to have her on board to help us achieve our higher level organizational goals through enhanced community awareness and fundraising efforts."

Family Services is a nonprofit, human services agency that protects, heals and cares for the children and families of Northeast Wisconsin. Since 1899, Family Services has supported the development of strong individuals and families through more than 30 comprehensive programs providing prevention, intervention and treatment/counseling services.
